

Supporting and promoting the art of fashion, the culture of fashion, the future of fashion

WWB Womenswear Buyer - May 2004

Central St Martin's student Jong-Su Kim won the fourth FAD Graduate Fashion Competition, which was held last month at the V&A Museum. Students from UK fashion colleges were asked to produce two garments reflecting the influence of Salvador Dali – born 100 years ago – and the spirit of Barcelona. As well as winning £2,000, Jong-Su Kim scooped a work placement with the Armand Basi Fashion House in Barcelona. Aurora Texeira from the Istituto Marangoni, London, was in second place followed by Kim Lewis from Central St Martin's.