

Fashion Awareness Direct

Creating fashion futures

News Shopper

LEWISHAM: Student celebrates winning youth fashion award

7:10am Friday 24th September 2010

Print Email Share Comments\(0\)

A 17-YEAR-OLD student is celebrating becoming the first boy to win a youth fashion award.

David Short, who attends Lewisham College, was crowned the winner of the Fashion Awareness Direct (FAD) Junior Awards.

The Fashion BTEC pupil beat 23 other contestants from schools and colleges across London and Manchester with his emerald green dress design.

All the finalists saw their garments on the catwalk at London Fashion Week.

Mr Short, who describes himself as "a bit obsessive when it comes to fashion" won a work placement with designers, Religion.

FAD is a charity supporting young people to bridge the gap between education and the fashion industry through competitions and workshops.

David Short, who attends Lewisham College, was crowned the winner of the Fashion Awareness Direct Junior Awards