

Designs on show

These are the colourful outfits designed by two talented students at St Francis Xavier Sixth Form College.

Lee-Ann Willoughby and Jacqueline Boakye were chosen to show their work on the catwalk during London Fashion Week.

The pair got through to the Fashion Awareness Direct junior awards, which recognises exceptional talent in design.

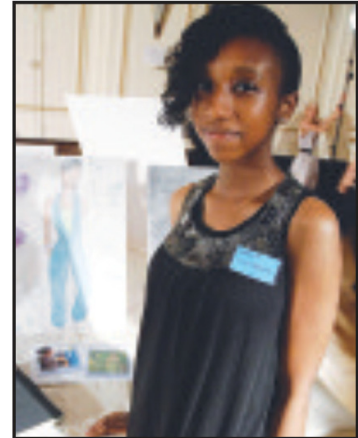

They travelled to the Vauxhall Fashion Scout for the show last Tuesday with 21 other teenagers from London and Salford.

The event's theme was arts and crafts for a modern age, with designers drawing on traditional and current influences.

Tell us what you think of the designs at wandsworthguardian.co.uk

Catwalk style: The designs by pupils Lee-Ann Willoughby and Jacqueline Boakye

Wandsworth Guardian, October 1st 2009