Ana Belen Meroño

Ladies and gentlemen, let me introduce you to the winner of Fashion Awareness Direct (FAD) at London Fashion Week, Miss Ana Belen Meroño. We were impressed by her sophisticated and highly polished designs, and so was the jury! You can see her creations below: the structured jacket with a digital Op-Art print, and the cosmic cloud print dress.

By the way, it seems that it's the third year running that the Nottingham Trent University, where Ana comes from, has won the top prize. Is it maybe a creative pool of new talents?
