

Desigual® F.A.D

Desigual Talent Acquisition Team is looking for UK graduates to be considered for paid internships and first jobs.

Up to fifteen 2018 UK graduates will be selected for an interview with the Talent Design Team on the morning of Monday 4th June 2018. Interviews will take place at a location close to Graduate Fashion Week.

In order to be considered, you should prepare one of the projects below – this could be an edit or development of your existing work, or a new project, but must show your understanding of the Desigual brand and customer. Please send your project to maria@fad.org.uk as one PDF of up to 15 pages, less than 10MB. You should also send an up to date CV.

Deadline: 18th May 2018

Project 1: Looking at Spring/Summer 2019, propose key trends, colours, themes and pieces for Desigual womenswear.

Project 2: the same for menswear

Project 3: the same for childrenswear

Project 4: the same for accessories

About Desigual

Desigual since 1984

At the age of 20, Thomas Meyer dreamed about a world in which people dressed differently. It was 1984 and Desigual had just been launched. From that point onwards, we've continued to spread positivity, creativity and above all, fun.

We dress people, not bodies

Everyone has something unique and different about them, and that's what inspires us. We don't create fashion, we create emotions, and this creative freedom is what makes us unique.

Atypical garments to celebrate life

We design unique items for our Woman, Man, Kids, Accessories, Shoes, Living, Sport and Beauty collections, that we distribute via 17 different channels, in 500 of our own and franchise stores, 8,000 multi-brand spaces, 2,500 corner concessions...

From Barcelona to the world

Our headquarters are in Barcelona overlooking the Mediterranean, the place where it all started and which continues to inspire us. We're here and in over 100 different countries. We're bold and enthusiastic and we never stop dreaming!
